MAKE WORDS

The male northern pintail is a beautiful duck that is easily distinguished by its brown head, long white neck and long tail. After breeding season and before fall migration, the males molt (lose and regrow their feathers) which causes them to resemble the females for a short while. During this transitional time they are said to have an "eclipse" plumage.

HOW MANY WORDS CAN YOU MAKE FROM THE LETTERS IN ITS NAME?

NORTHERN PINTAIL

Possible answers include: Alter, ante, either, hat, hear, heart, henna, horn, intern, late, latin, linen, lit, nail, near, neither, north, pail, pain, paint, parent, part, patent, pint, pit, port, rap, rate, ripe, rope, rotate, tail, tap, tat, tear, tenant, the, then, thorn, tip, torn.

COPYRIGHT 2008© WATERFORD PRESS INC.
Download hundreds of games, quizzes and activities from our website at www.waterfordpress.com